RUSSIA'S DECISION

The Government Defines its Position as to What is Contraband of War.

REPLY SENT TO GREAT BRITAIN.

In Principle it Meets the Views of America and England Regarding Foodstuffs and Fuel.

It Distinctly Places Them in the Category of Articles Susceptible of Uses Both in War and in Peace.

London, Sept. 17.—The foreign office has received a dispatch from Ambassador Hardinge, at St. Petersburg, giving Russia's reply to the representations on the subject of contraband of war. Foreign Secretary Lansdowne and Premier Balfour are both absent, but Charles Hardinge's dispatch was forwarded to them, and, pending their action, nothing is available at the foreign office beyond a general expression of opinion that the reply goes a long way toward settling up the question as to what in the future may be properly regarded as contraband. According to the British view there are still open certain questions of principle, but it is believed that these will be arranged in the course of further negotiations.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 17.—Russia, in Count Lamsdorff's response to Ambassador Hardinge, in principle, meets the views of the American and British governments regarding foodstuffs and coal and other fuel as being conditional contraband of war, distinctly placing them in the category of articles susceptible of uses both in war and peace, and, as such, only confiscable when consigned to blockaded ports or destined for the military or naval forces of the army. Shipments in the ordinary course of trade by private persons or firms, even to an enemy's port, may be considered prima facie not contraband; but upon this point distinct reservation is made. The simple fact of consignment by private persons does not preclude the possibility that the articles are not ultimately destined for belligerent forces, and Russia insists that it is not necessarily regarded as conclusive evidence of the innocent character of the goods.

In other words, irregular ships' papers or other suspicious circumstances, might vitiate the assumption of innocent character; but where such suspicion is raised the burden of proof to warrant legal seizure is to rest upon the captor.

Count Lamsdorff's reply was not presented in written form, but was communicated verbally to Ambassador Hardinge.

It will not involve public amendment of Russian contraband and prize regulations, but in effect it becomes an official interpretation of the original regulation made by the commission, composed of representatives of the ministries of foreign affairs, marine, war and justice, which considered the subject in connection with the objections raised by the United States and Great Britain, and as such will hereafter govern naval commanders and prize courts, which thus far in the war have classed all articles enumerated in article 6, of the Russian regulations as absolute contraband.

Count Lamsdorff's victory in the controversy while not absolutely complete, is perhaps noteworthy as having been achieved against powerful adverse influences. At one time it seemed doubtful whether any concessions could be obtained, but Thursday the emperor sanctioned the decision which Count Lamsdorff communicated to Ambassador Hardinge Friday.

JAPS CONCENTRATING.

They Are Preparing to Move Against Kuropatkin's Flanks.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 17.—The war office has heard the report of an apparent Japanese concentration against the flanks of Gen. Kuropatkin's army preparatory to an advance toward Mukden. While it is not in a position to absolutely confirm or deny the report, it would surprise the war office should Field Marshal Oyama have been able, in such short time, to organize his forces for a serious advance northward.

To Succeed Vice Adm. Avelan.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 17.—A rumor, which it is impossible to confirm, has been in circulation here for some time that Vice Adm. Doubasoff is to succeed Vice Adm. Avelan, as the head of the admiralty department.

CIRCUIT COURT DECISION.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 17.—Judge Carroll, in the Franklin circuit court, rendered a decision in the case of the commonwealth vs. Burton, Thomas and Thompson, chief of police, sheriff and others, officers claiming fees for examining trial. The case involved the validity of the act of 1902, which relates to fees, which the court holds to be valid. Under this law, as construed, fees for examining trials can not be recovered unless an indictment is found.

The Entire Crew is Aboard the Russian Ship and Will Be Detained For a Time.

Work of Dismantling the Lena Will Commence at an Early Date, and She Will Be Placed in a Seaworthy Condition.

San Francisco, Sept. 17.—The Russian auxiliary cruiser Lena is now at the government naval station at Mare Island, having departed from San Francisco bay Friday afternoon under the escort of the cruiser Marblehead. The Lena is now under the local jurisdiction of Rr. Adm. McCalla, of the navy yard, the responsibility of her safekeeping, having been transferred from Rr. Adm. Goodrich. The entire crew of the Lena is aboard the Russian vessel, and will doubtless be detained at Mare Island, pending an official decision as to their disposition. The work of dismantling the Lena will be commenced at an early date, and workmen have been engaged to place her in a seaworthy condition.

The board of inspection appointed by Rr. Adm. Goodrich has completed its inspection of the Lena's boilers and machinery. As their report has not yet been officially considered at Washington, the findings of the engineering experts have not been made public here.

Washington, Sept. 17.—Minister Takahira called upon Acting Secretary of State Adee Friday to make inquiry as to the terms of the parole to be granted to the Russian crew of the Lena, in conformity with the president's decision. He was informed that the details of the parole would be arranged at San Francisco by Adms. RUINOUS CONFLICT.

Russo-Japanese War May End Sooner Than People Imagine.

London, Sept. 17.—The Daily Telegraph's St. Petersburg correspondent declares that a Russian statesman, whose name, if revealed, would wing his utterance with lightning rapidity over the globe, asserted Friday that it was his impression that the war might end sooner than people imagine, not through mediation, but through mutual recognition of the ruinous nature of the conflict which would lead to negotiations that would result in a Russo-Japanese alliance.

The Scene the First Witnessed Since the "Reconstruction Period."

Huntsville, Ala., Sept. 17.—Guarded by squads of militia, Thomas M. Riggins and Ben Hill, alleged lynchers, were marched into the circuit court Friday and given a preliminary hearing. The scene was such as has not been witnessed here since the "reconstruction period," as such a thing as soldiers in a civil court room has not been seen since the days immediately following the civil war.

A special jury has been ordered for each occasion. Attorney Lawrence Cooper, for Mr. Riggins, created somewhat of a sensation when, in addressing the court, he questioned the constitutionality of the act allowing soldiers in a civil court room. He made an impassioned speech against the presence of the militia.

Solicitor Pettus replied to Mr. Cooper with the statement that the militia were not aliens, but natives of Alabama, and sent there by their governor to maintain the laws of the state.

RIOTERS ARRESTED

Eight Men Are Guarded by Three Companies of Florida Militia at Baxter.

IMPLICATED IN FOUR KILLINGS.

Eleven Others of Gang Have Agreed to Surrender Themselves and Will Come in Saturday.

The Killing Was the Result of a Fitter Feud Between the Altmans and the Duncans, and is of Long Standing.

Valdosta, Ga., Sept. 17.—Baxter, Fla., is policed by three companies of Florida militia, following the killing of four men, which resulted from the feud between the Altmans and Duncans. Shortly before dark Sheriff Herndon and his posse brought in eight prisoners, alleged to be implicated in the killing of Jackson Duncan, Rufus Thrift and a negro. The men are Bartow Crews, Berry Crews, Riley Roden, Caney Roden, Bird Johns, John Eddy, Jesse Sapp and Homer Eddy. Some were arrested in Florida and others in Georgia.

These men are stretched out on the floor of a shanty resting under the guards of the Live Oak Suwannee rifles of Florida, the Wilson battery of artillery and the sheriff's posse. There are 11 others of the gang. Men who were sent to see them have just returned and report that they have agreed to surrender themselves, and will come in voluntarily Saturday morning and turn themselves over to the authorities. If they do not violate their pledge this will place all of the gang in the custody of the officers, with the exception of Jesse Altman, who is still at large, and his whereabouts unknown.

He was seen in Baxter on Friday, but disappeared shortly before the sheriff arrived from McClenny. It is thought that he, too, will surrender when he finds that the others have taken that course.

Jacksonville, Fla., Sept. 17.—Some days ago the governor's office was asked for assistance to effect the arrest of the Altmans. William Duncan reported on Wednesday that the Altmans were still congregated with their friends, and that they were threatening further trouble. He said that Sheriff Herndon, of Baker county, refused to act. This letter was indorsed by the Consolidated Naval Stores Co., of which Duncan is a member, and a further demand was made on the governor's office for troops.

Sheriff Herndon has refused to act, because, he says, the killing of Jackson Duncan and a negro on the train last Sunday night, occurred in the state of Georgia, and that the Altmans live in that state. It is stated, however, that he attempted Thursday night to arrest them, but was driven from the place. The sheriff of Charlton county, Georgia, where it is said the killing occurred, has made no effort to get mixed up in the affair. Gov. Jennings is out of the state in the west, but Cromwell Gibbons, speaker of the house of representatives, who, under the law is acting governor, has declared himself ready to act when so requested by the secretary of state.

The feud between the Altmans and Duncans is of long standing. The Duncans are turpentine operators. The Altmans are merchants, and also have many strong supporters in Baker county.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1904.

KUROPATKIN has a rival. Peary is going to make another try for the North Pole.

"No man ever stays long in the suburbs of sin," says the Chicago Tribune. Certainly not. He soon lands in Louisville.

GENERAL MICHAEL RYAN, in a communication to the Times-Star from Dublin, says the population of the Emerald Isle has fallen off a million in a score of years. The General doesn't state just how many of them became American policemen.

They say this is going to be a noiseless campaign. That may be, as far as national politics are concerned. Jim Kehoe, though, is blessed with a pretty lusty pair of lungs, and he will no doubt "speak his piece" in tones loud enough to be heard in the remotest corners of the Ninth district.

The government departments are extravagant and filled with grafters which the Republican party has refused to investigate, although evidence was plentiful that but a beginning had been made in exposing the frauds through a partisan of but two bureaus of the Postoffice Department. "Turn the rascals out."

THE Democrats are united as they have not been before for many years, and the ticket will receive the normal vote of the party in this State. Congressman Kehoe will get a great many recruits from the enemy in the district and they together, with the bulk of the great Independent vote he will secure, makes his election seem certain, and Judge Pugh's retirement for good an established fact.

THE Republicans are not so boastful and cocksure of the election of Roosevelt since the revised returns of Maine have been digested. They admit that the same Democratic gain, if maintained in the doubtful States, would elect Judge Parker, and they also admit that if a large majority of the German vote goes for Parker with that of the conservative and independent vote his election is almost assured.

MISS MARGARET INGELS,

The Talented Lady Orator to Stamp the Hoosier State For The Democratic Nominees.

If Parker and Davis do not carry the State of Indiana in the Presidential election, it will not be the fault of Miss Margaret Ingels, the talented and beautiful young society woman of the Blue Grass region, who has volunteered her services to the Chairman of the National Democratic Committee, to take the stump for the Democratic standard bearers.

Miss Ingels was on the stump in both of the Bryan campaigns, speaking through Ohio and Indiana in 1896, and through Missouri, Indiana and Kentucky in the fall of 1900.

Miss Ingels is not only an orator of great ability, but for several years was a stage favorite in the South and West, where she played stellar parts in several attractions sent out by Jacob Litt, of "Old Kentucky" fame, it being in this attraction that she gained her greatest distinction, assuming the role of Madge.

Miss Ingels is in receipt of a letter from Chairman Taggart, thanking her for volunteering her services, and assuring her that she would be given choice dates by the committee.

Weather Forecast.

Fair, warmer to-night; Sunday fair.

—Miss Amy Calhoun will leave the latter part of the month for Washington City, where she will enter Washington College the present term.

Uncle Sam:—"Parker is good enough for me."

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS.

Attorney General's Construction of the Act Requiring Registration in Cities of the Fifth and Sixth Classes.

Hon. Virgil McKnight of Washington recently wrote Attorney General Hays, at Frankfort, requesting his construction of the act of the last General Assembly as to the registration in cities of the fifth and sixth classes. Following is the substance of the reply:

Cities of the various classes were classified by the Legislature in order to better carry on State Government, and in order that different laws applicable and appropriate to the various classes of cities might be passed by the Legislature.

In order to prove the existence of a municipal corporation it is ordinarily sufficient to produce its charter and prove acts done under it; from the general purpose of the Legislature in dividing cities into classes and more especially from the language used in section 156 of the present Constitution of Kentucky and in Sections 2740 and 2660 of Kentucky Statutes, we are of the opinion that any law such as the act of 1904 with regard to registration in cities of the fifth and sixth classes, would apply to all said municipal corporations, classified in Kentucky Statutes as cities of the fifth and sixth classes, which have done some act under the said charter as a municipal corporation; the mere failure to live up to all the requirements of law as to local self-government etc., would, we think, have no effect on the application of the law.

We have had some hesitation in this matter on first thought, believing that such towns as have not lived up to the requirements of the Statute would not be municipal corporations and therefore the said law would not apply to them, but considering the purpose of classifying cities of the Commonwealth, by their population, i. e. that suitable laws be passed to apply to the various classes of cities, we are of the opinion that any town which comes within the definition of the Statute of fifth and sixth class towns, which has a definite boundary, which has a prima facie existence as a municipal corporation having done some act under its charter, comes within the purview of the act of 1904 requiring registration in cities of the fifth and sixth classes.

Mr. Wm. McClelland entertained at dinner last evening at his beautiful country home. The following gentlemen from this city were present: Judge G. S. Wall, Messrs. J. F. Barbour, W. W. Ball, D. Hechinger, Dan Perrine, J. Ed. Parker, Jas. Threlkeld and Simmons Matthews. The evening was delightfully spent and will long be remembered as one of the pleasant memories of their lives.

A dispatch from Chicago says Rome Respass and his friends made an old-time killing at Hawthorne Thursday with Woodlawn Belle, who won easily after being backed down from 3 to 1 to 7 5. Nicol had the mount on the Respass filly and he always had the race in hand. She first disposed of the speedy Cyprienne and then had plenty left when Charley Miller loomed up.

Two young men made away with a couple of bicycles at Portsmouth, came to Maysville and disposed of them at Lynch's second-hand store. The father of one of the boys came after them, but did not arrive in time to apprehend the youths, who went west.

GIRLS, SHOW YOUR CHARMS.

But Don't Pull Your Skirt Tight Unless—Pad if You Are a Human Hatrack.

Mrs. Linda Ross Wade, the oracle of the National Dressmakers' convention has told "how to snare a man." Here is her recipe:

"Wear simple gowns, but be sure they are becoming. Show your charms. Let modesty dictate where to stop. Wear low cut dresses if shoulders and skin are good. Pad if you are a human hatrack; don't show the hooks. Be natural. In desperate cases try red. Don't pull your skirt tight unless— Be attractive in the morning. Don't let men callers catch you in 'dowdy' attire. Never wear high heels except in the ballroom or on the stage. Don't be mannish. Play to man's hobbies. Don't always smile, be cross and fight occasionally."

Mrs. Chas. W. Forman of the county was better yesterday, though still very sick.

Counterfeit Silver Dollars and Halves Said to Be in Circulation in Maysville.

It looks like the gang of counterfeiters who were working Central Kentucky have been circulating a lot of the spurious coin in Maysville.

The BULLETIN understands that a number of silver dollars and fifty cent pieces have been passed on local merchants and saloon-keepers the past few days.

The banks every once in a while run across counterfeiters, but inquiry brought out the statement that no increase had been noted.

Anyway, it will pay you to be on your guard and scan closely coins of above denomination offered by strangers.

A new heater has been placed in the

of hot water for the members to-day.

The Portsmouth Tribune says a ball team is being organized there to come to Maysville for a game in the near future.

McPherson, the telephone man at Washington, left Friday for Greensburg,
Penn., where he will accept a situation.

Mr. Albert N. Huff, formerly of this city but now of Huntington, is a delegate to the Carpenters' and Joiners' Convention at Milwaukee.

There will be no preaching at the Second M. E. Church, South, to-morrow,

H. L. Cordrey of the Washington neighborhood has purchased the Boyd farm near Dover from the State National Bank. There are 105 acres in the farm and the price paid was $6,000.

Jacob Ammer, aged seventy, of Minerva, was seriously injured a few days ago by a load of tobacco turning over with him. He fell, cutting his face and head and breaking one of his arms.

You are invited to hear a sermon on the subject, "The Sign of the Cross," at First Baptist Church Sunday morning.
No preaching at night, as the pastor goes to hold a meeting at Stonelick.

Captain E. W. Fitzgerald of Covington

etor of the BULLETIN for a Parker and Davis "check to Washington." The Captain is always mindful of his friends.

WOULD LOOK STUNNING.

Clever Advertising Scheme Proposed to Make Maysville a Much-Talked-of Town.

It's a burning shame that John Duley didn't hit upon this scheme.

Think of the free advertising the Board of Trade might have had all summer through the agency of the charming young woman of Maysville.

Why the attractions at a bathing resort seem tame alongside of this proposition:

All the loyal girls of Menominee, Mich., wear black silk stockings upon which, worked in white, is the announcement, "Menominee is a good town."

The idea is unique and its publicity value will no doubt be appreciated by the hustling Parson President of the Board of Trade.

Maysville certainly has plenty of good material to work upon and a similar message standing out on a well-filled background ought to look stunning, indeed.

There is only one drawback to the whole scheme. The members of the local board might so monopolize the street corners that there wouldn't be enough men left indoors to handle the increase in business brought this way.

As a special inducement to advertise

three night's engagement at the opera

Judge John L. Whitaker and wife entertained a number of little folks at their home on Plum street last evening in honor of their grandchild, little Miss Farnsworth, of Scranton, Miss., who is here on a visit.

The steamer Courier sunk a barge she was towing as a lighter near Huntington Sunday night. There were 500 sacks of wheat on the barge much of which was lost, only about 200 sacks being saved.
The sinking of the barge was caused by striking a snag.

The Frank Owens Hardware Company
have had a run on "Gem" food choppers
the past week, as a result of their advertisement in the BULLETIN. The boys say they sold more of these handy little machines the past ten days than they disposed of all last season, which proves they are a pretty good thing to have in the kitchen.

Officials of the Ohio River and Columbus railway deny the reported sale of the road to the L. and N. A meeting of the stockholders will, however, be held September 19th in St. Louis, at which time it is expected something may be done toward the ultimate disposition of the road, which is at present on a good paying basis.

A class in French under the direction and instruction of Mrs. George T. Barbour has been added to the Department of Languages at Hayswood. The class has been organized not only for the benefit of the students at Hayswood but at the request of a number of ladies in the city who have expressed a desire for such a class. Any further information regarding terms, etc., may be obtained by inquiring at the seminary.

One of the interesting features of the United States Government building at the St. Louis Exposition is the improved rural mail delivery, as shown by the unique use of moving pictures. The mail carrier is seen to drive up to country homes, stop his team, get out, deliver the mail and receive mail from the residents of the farm houses. The pictures, made from photographs, often show the country women and children rushing out to get the mail, their faces radiant with hope and eager expectancy. One of the wagons is accompanied by a collie dog, which trots along under the vehicle, the pictures giving it the appearance of life. One scene shows a country woman buying a stamp and exchanging a little gossip with the mail carrier. The pictures are so real that to watch them makes one seem to be enjoying a drive through country lanes.

HARD TO EXPLAIN.

If This Had Occurred Anywhere Else Than Maysville Our Readers Might Doubt It.

It's hard to explain how the public can continue to doubt in the face of such evidence. If this were published anywhere else than in Maysville, if the statement given below went the rounds of the press, readers in Boston or New Orleans might doubt it. But it's very different when the testimony given comes from a friend, perhaps a neighbor. It is public expression of a local citizen and can be easily investigated.

Mr. Larmon Dawson, residing at 934 East Second street, says: "The quick relief from pain in my back, which followed the use of Doan's Kidney Pills proved them to possess remarkable healing powers. I procured them at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store, corner West Second and Market streets. From the satisfactory results obtained I can advise all in need of a kidney medicine to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial."

For sale by all dealers; price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name DOAN'S and take no substitute.

Church Rally.

Sunday at 10:30 a. m. will be held a church rally at Third Street M. E. Church. Every member is expected to be present and answer to their name. The probationers will be baptized and received into full connection. The subject of the pastor's sermon will be "The Conversion of the World."

Presiding Elder Harrop will preach at 7 p. m. This being the fourth quarterly meeting the communion will be served. Turn out and give him a good hearing. All are welcome.

Owing to the absence of Dr. H. Molloy there will be no services at the Central Presbyterian Church to-morrow except Sunday school. Prayer meeting next week will be held Thursday evening, conducted by the pastor.

Painless extraction of teeth at Dr. Cartmell's.

The Carlisle City Council has rejected all bids for the construction of a water works plant at that place. The bids will be re-advertised for in the near future, as soon as the legality of the question of the bond issue can be settled.

In the test case of Dr. J. D. Collins against the County Clerk at Covington, Special Judge Mackoy decided that the new registration law of Kentucky is unconstitutional and enjoins the County Clerk from issuing the registration blanks. He holds that the act disqualifies a person from voting. An appeal will be taken in the case at once.

If Mr. Kehoe's majority over Judge Pugh in November is as big, in proportion as the blood turnip beet yanked into this office by Mr. Thomas F. Gaither of Marshall Station, she's going to be a whopper. The beet registered nine pounds and two ounces when it thumped the floor, causing Jim Threlkeld to temporarily evacuate his position in the bank, thinking the BULLETIN's big cylinder press was coming through.
